although your intentions maybe good willed the one thing psoriasis sufferers dislike the most is the use of the word cure

there is NO CURE there is a remission and the likes but there is NO CURE im sure i speak for all members ( for those i dont sorry )

what your brother has experinced is a remission in his psoriasis due to the routine he has encountered which would then be best left up to the individual to take up on if he or she feels like doing

but i stress again there is NO CURE

You're frequently found sticking out of a pants leg or sleeve. Ironically, you assist people in getting rid of unnecessary cling-ons. Captain Kirk would've loved you.

Then "the no cure paradigm" is the FIRST PARADIGM you must overcome.If you read my FOR THE REST OF YOUR LIFE REMISSION protocol, then you will realize that the reason most people are sick is because they live their lives UPSIDE DOWN.

- They put chemicals on their bodies every single day
- They eat inflammation causing foods every single day: wheat! soya! oats! tomatoes! potatoes! cooked factory farmed meat everyday! condiments.... the list goes on and on and on.

A whole bunch of people are having LIFETIME REMISSIONS.

See this video about the PALEO DIET.

No advertising here.

There is no funding mechanism to promote the ORIGINAL RECOMMENDED HUMAN DIET.

It is only through the goodness... the good samaritans in peoples hearts that you hear about the truth.

&lt;a href="<http://www.youtube.com/v/BVn-jmCi4zl&rel=0>" target="_blank"&gt;<http://www.youtube.com/v/BVn-jmCi4zl&rel=0&lt;a&gt;>

Who wants to have lifetime remission from psoriasis? Raise your hands... nod your head.

Just read on and ask away how it is done.

Free Cure Protocol. Not advertising.

You need to read, understand, and do it.

No this is not a wonder cure.
 You need to READ READ READ.
 It is obvious from your RANT that you have not READ.
 You have not UNDERSTOOD.
 READ MAN.

If you have any will to want to improve your life you READ.
 Good grief. It's FREE. No Catch.

Then you gotta DO DO DO DO it.

Below is a picture of my son's foot that was cured and stays cured.
 Forever in remission. Because he is allergic to all chicken. We switched to DUCKS.

And this is the ideology I battled against in skin cell forum when I used to be sick.
 When I was sick, they welcomed me with open arms.
 Oh... welcome sick brethren.
 I poured my heart and soul and made my journal there.
 Then when I found out how to cure myself and cure others as well they HATED ME
 FOR IT.
 They erased my thread.

I sincerely hope this psoriasis help organization UK forum will do better and allow for

CURES or LIFETIME REMISSIONS to be talked about.

I'm a busy businessman taking time to help people. I suggest you take advantage while I have the time to share my knowledge.

I sincerely hope you will learn from me, CURE YOURSELF, then teach others how to cure psoriasis as well.

You want to use the word remission? Go ahead.

I do not believe that the popular incurable diseases are incurable. Believing in incurables is unscientific. Believing in incurables is more like a fanatic religion. What is worse is believing in incurable diseases is a self fulfilling superstition.

Attached is a picture of my brother's deathly psoriasis in January 2007. He was dying.

Almost died. In the picture I gifted him with a zapper to help save him. Colon cleanses, kidney cleanses, liver flushes, virgin coconut oil detoxes and orange juice fasting made great strides. Eating fresh raw tuna worked wonders we threw away the omega 3 supplements. Real raw food works.

My brother's entire body from head to toe was engulfed in his "psoriasis".
