Claims that you "have cured a man with terminal cancer" by liver flushing make me baulk. Please moderate your perverse claims.

I said I SAVED a man with terminal liver cancer. His story is still progressing. Google for Pepito Liver Cancer and you will find out what I did for the man... for FREE.

I am eczema CURED. My claim is as real as your highest standards. I've gone beyond Andreas Moritz' teachings.

Have you read my cure outline?

This is the alternatives forum where cures happen. In the circle of healers around me, cures happen all the time. Since I have found a cure for my eczema, then for my brother's psoriasis, I may as well share it with you guys. Since I'm not allowed to post a link to my website, then I'm posting my stuff in this thread.

No need for you to be offended. A token of thanks I would appreciate.

Free Cure Protocol. Not advertising. You need to read, understand, and do it.
